

All Your Anxiety

Words by: Edward Henry Joy from 1 Peter 5:7; Music by Eric Himes SASB #246

A E F#m7 E
Is there a heart o'erbound by sorrow?

A D F#m7 E/G#
Is there a life weighed down by care?

C# F#m7 B E
Come to the cross, each burden bearing,

A D E7 A
All your anxiety, leave it there.

A E F#m7 D
All your anxiety, all your care,
A E F#m7 E/G#
Bring to the mercy seat, leave it there,
A E F#m7 D
Never a burden he cannot bear,
F#m7 E A D A E
Never a friend like Jesus.

A E F#m7 E
No other friend so keen to help you;

A D F#m7 E/G#
No other friend so quick to hear;

C# F#m7 B E
No other place to leave your burden;

A D E7 A
No other one to hear your prayer.

A E F#m7 E
Come, then, at once; delay no longer;
A D F#m7 E/G#
Heed his entreaty, kind and sweet;
C# F#m7 B E
You need not fear a disappointment;
A D E7 A
You shall find peace at the mercy seat.

1 Peter 5:6-11

Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you. Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that your brothers throughout the world are undergoing the same kind of sufferings. And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast. To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.
