

Mid-Winter

Words by: Christina Rossetti; Music by: Gustav Holst

Tempo: 168

Intro: F Dm Gm C

F                    Dm   Gm                    C
In the bleak midwinter frosty wind made moan,
F                    Dm   Bb   C                    F
Earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;
Bb                F   Bb   Dm F                    Am   C
Snow had fallen, snow on snow, snow on snow,
F                    Dm   Bb C   F
In the bleak midwinter, lo – ng ago.

F                    Dm   Gm                    C
Our God, heav'n can't hold Him nor the earth sustain;
F                    Dm   Bb   C                    F
Heav'n and earth shall flee away when He comes to reign:
Bb                F   Bb   Dm F                    Am   C
In the bleak mid – win – ter a stable place sufficed
F                    Dm   Bb C   F
The Lord God Almighty, Je – sus Christ.

F                Dm   Gm   C
What can I give Him, poor as I am?
F                Dm   Bb   C                F
If I were a shepherd I would bring a Lamb;
Bb            F Bb   Dm F                    Am   C
If I were a Wise Man I would do my part;
F                Dm   Bb C   F
Yet can I give Him? Gi – ve my heart.
